

Gov. signs WHVVD Bill, from page 1

caused.

"We anti-war activists were wrong," Voight said as he started to choke up, addressing the crowd. "...but we can honor them now."

Sigala, the Riverside Legion commander, said many veterans groups will hold events.

Now graying, the Vietnam veterans pledged to soldiers now stationed at Twentynine Palms standing throughout the crowd that they won't be left behind.

"This will never happen to you," Ramos told them. "You have my word."
